Blessed series

Posted by Glyglobal Wed, August 24, 2022 12:51:40 Jesus is LORD

Matthew 5:1-12

"Now when Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, and he began to teach them.

He said: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

God bless.

Art of quickly

Posted by Glyglobal Fri, July 22, 2022 17:07:55 Jesus is LORD

"Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are on the way with him, lest your adversary deliver you to the judge, the judge hand you over to the officer, and you be thrown into prison." Matthew 5:25

"Render to all their dues.." Romans 13:7

Scriptural reading- "don't be anxious"

Posted by Glyglobal Mon, February 21, 2022 23:29:11 Jesus is LORD

"Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice! Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."

Philippians 4:4-7

A good prayer to make, is for grace to be content in God's abilities- to be anxious for nothing. But rather faith to be well assured of God's consistent hand for supernatural intervention.

Amen.

One, and all.

"Sarah said, "God has brought me laughter, and everyone who hears about this will laugh with me." " Genesis 21:6 (Luke 1:41-44; Matthew 9:8)

When God 'causes,' it comes with its effect. It brings blessing to one but to others. Sarah pointed to God who caused it-"brought me laughter." Made her laugh, made her joyful. Not things, not Abraham, not the society, not family, but God as a direct source. These things can be positive tools in God's hands. The blessing may bring the gladness, but the God of the blessing is clearly the bringer. God blessed Sarah with a child, so soothed her heart. It was heartfelt because what should have taken a natural course took decades upon decades, so when it came it had to be God. A supernatural occasion beyond human intervention as at when it happened.

Again, the joy to one would bring smiles to many. God who made Sarah laugh, can be held responsible for making others laugh with her in comfort. Its the ripple effect of blessing.

May the Lord grant us who trust Him blessings that will make us rejoice and those who hear of it. Amen.

God bless.

God's purpose will stand

Posted by Glyglobal Tue, December 21, 2021 09:38:46 Jesus is LORD

"She gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him snugly in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no lodging available for them." – Luke 2:7

Couldn't the Lord though cocooned in a baby's form, command an inn, to suit Him and His care-keepers? God could. But it pleased the father that there will be no space in lofty heights but among the lowly. So both to the lowly, first, and those of means, all will gain the privilege of meeting and worshipping Him at the manger. The uniting force will be a kind-red spirit of meekness and purity of heart.

Two miracles can be seen, that God can still birth His promise even if accesses are closed, and that in humility greatness is born. May God grant us the assurance to know His purpose will stand, and also the humility of heart so that in due time He can continually lift us up who trust Him!

Merry Christmas to you all in this precious season.

It takes skill to negotiate promptly. To know when to let the breaks off, to realise when at the bargain your hand is less imposing. To know when reverence is due.
Two scriptures that compel meditation, the first, requires emphasising making peace not insisting on your perception of correction, but not necessarily discountenancing a right turn, and the second on observing 'due-ness.'

In dealing with family conflict and working with friends being agreeable is an art which means giving meekness a chance. And then making haste to avoid offence., I feel it's almost saying you win, so you keep walking free. It's not accrediting nobility it's saying I will let God's discretion overall win, He won't give you more than you can bear. Except, if on that matter or in that day you have a divine prompt to insist against obvious suggested standards for a good purpose, and posterity. True, the complexity of matters can let you realise that issues may be blurred and mental processing times may be divergent for a few.

A few nods here, a smile there, a hug may be all needed- still each grow into the full breathe of their wisdom.

God bless.

A reason for praise?

Posted by Glyglobal Tue, June 28, 2022 07:49:35 Jesus is LORD

"I will give thanks and praise to You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; Wonderful are Your works, And my soul knows it very well." Psalm 139:14

When God finished creation He declared it good. Like a fine painter, breathing a sigh of relief at a well crafted master piece, fine-tuned to a worthy standard for sale or own pleasure. In no mistaken words God inspired the Psalmist to give thanks to realise and say "wonderfully made" on reflection of self and to note the wholesomeness of it all. The walk, the speech, the intellect, the grace and attention to detail of the human specie, and more importantly the sense of being made in God's likeness. Other forms of creation carry too their goodness but man, humanity, stays truly in its own class. Looking at the butterfly, roses, giraffes etc don't they all hold some intrinsic charm?

To in reverential worship consider it all but nothing without God has its own merits, as one in sack cloth, but there is the spiritual wisdom of basking in thanks of God's dexterity in creation and the joy being stewards of grace and doing that with those who share this kind of wisdom. Also teaching others to draw comfort in areas they can see God at work, as we take an eschatology view of a even greater glory that awaits.

This is the gospel that God is good, and there is high wisdom to give thanks, which is genuine humility and balanced truth and unpridefu! worship.

So, here I am thankful for me, God truly has done well in making me in a wonderful way. To God be all the glory.

God bless.

Learning new ways

Posted by Glyglobal Wed, May 25, 2022 08:29:36 Jesus is LORD

"Render therefore to all men their dues. Tribute, to whom tribute is due; custom, to whom custom; fear, to whom fear; honour, to whom honour."
Romans 13:7

Being respectful for some can be really so difficult, it means aligning often with a thing or person you may not agree with or share similar values.

Yet as Christians we are called to walk in love, to give to each person his or her due. What does this mean? Failing to give commendation as necessary means raising grounds for future conflict. Some guardians and parents enable their offspring to decountenance authority, this clearly will be a setup for legal reprimand, no matter how nice

Faith in Christ 2022 – notice.

Posted by Glyglobal Sun, November 28, 2021 16:24:04 Jesus is LORD

Kindly take note of the scheduled date. God bless.

Evangelist Israel Okunwaye

it looks. And soon it bites sideways, to hold on to untruths. So here we are praying for strong characters for loving reverence. It doesn't mean complacency, or timidity, it means weighing an option and appropriately crediting value.

Learning respect takes effort and discipline. Helping others learn better ways means not thanking, empowering, or paying wrong attitudes. A strategic plan means a life long goal of releasing people into their destiny through not hoarding advice, so they don't learn the hard way. Also, knowing its no merit to seek to earn value by seeking to devalue others.

In the end respect for evil is not important as Christ shows us, as God should be first in our hearts.

God bless.

God is true to His word

Posted by Glyglobal Sun, March 27, 2022 08:49:36 Jesus is LORD

"As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people both now and forevermore."

Psalms 125:2

God assures us of His protection and comfort. The strength of assurance is a joy to read. It's a great blessing to see this promise come true. In the journies. In projects, in consumptions, in partnerships, in learning right, in solitude, also in the seeming little things of a morning rise. We have to constantly revert to the depth of this promise as if reminding God, to keep His bargain, and He has done, does and will. His precise words are, as the mountains provide a fortress and buffer, so God is able to shield when we pray to Him. Dear God, give us breathing space from the wicked, make our homes impregnable, grant us grace to see doers of evil from a distance and flee and repel their works. And should we err and not take preferred instructions may your intervening grace help us, in all may Christ be praised. Amen.

God bless.
